

"Golf Nut Package"

For Jim Jacobus' Clients!!!

Are you looking to add something really special, unique and dynamic to your next big event? For your annual corporate meeting, sales meeting or Association meeting Jim Jacobus will "come early" or "stay late" to add something special to your golf outing.

As a 6 time Chrysler National Long Drive Regional Champion, with a personal best of 426 yards in competition, a 2 handicapper and a winner of a National Championship in golf, Jim brings insight into the game of golf, along with competitiveness and success under pressure with a great sense of humor.

Whether you want a "Driving Range Demo" on how to hit the ball farther than you ever dreamed possible, a special hole event or you would like Jim to play with key members of your event, you will find this opportunity fun, as well as, challenging and informative for all that attend. Call now to make your next event a memorable one!

FEES

If done in conjunction with a speaking appearance the fees are on a per event basis ranging from $1,000 to $1,500, plus any additional expenses for staying an additional day or coming a day earlier. If done as a separate event in itself, our normal fee structure applies.
